Where a document confirming payment of the fee has not been submitted together with the request for the restoration of the right, the request shall be deemed not to have been submitted, and the right relating to the Eurasian application or Eurasian patent shall not be restored.

[paragraph 8 as amended on December 5–7, 2023. Effective from January 1, 2024]

9. Consultation of Files

(1) When filing a request to provide copies of documents cited in the patent search report, as provided for in Rule 43(1) of the Patent Regulations, a fee in the amount of 800 Rubles shall be paid.

A document confirming payment of the fee shall be submitted together with said request.

Where the total number of sheets in the requested documents exceeds 20, a payment of 100 Rubles shall be made for each sheet in excess of 20. A document confirming the payment of the fee balance shall be submitted within three months of the date of dispatch, by the Eurasian Office, of notification of the need to make the payment.

Where a document confirming payment of the fee or balance in respect of the fee has not been submitted, the requested documents shall not be enclosed with the patent search report.

(2) For consultation of Eurasian application or Eurasian patent, a fee in the amount of 6,500 Rubles shall be paid to the Eurasian Office in accordance with Rule 61(2) of the Patent Regulations.

A document confirming payment of the fee shall be submitted together with a request for consultation of files of Eurasian application or Eurasian patent.

Where a document confirming payment of the fee has not been submitted together with the request, consultation of files shall not be permitted.

(3) For providing the information from the Register of Eurasian Patents, a fee in the amount of 1,000 Rubles shall be paid for each patent in accordance with Rule 58(1) of the Patent Regulations.

A document confirming payment of the fee shall be submitted together with a request for providing this information.

Where a document confirming payment of the fee has not been submitted together with the corresponding request, the information requested from the Register of Eurasian Patents shall not be provided.

(4) For providing the information on a Eurasian application, a fee in the amount of 1,000 Rubles shall be paid in accordance with Rule 14(2) of the Patent Regulations.

10. Maintenance of a Eurasian Patent, Surrender, Limitation and Extension of Patent's Validity

(1) For the purposes of maintaining a Eurasian patent in accordance with Articles 17, 18(2) and (3) of the Convention, an annual fee shall be paid for such maintenance (hereinafter "annual fee") in the amount equal to the sum of the fees for maintaining a Eurasian patent in the designated Contracting States for the corresponding year of validity of the Eurasian patent.

In accordance with the provision of Article 17 of the Convention, annual fees for the maintenance of a Eurasian patent shall be paid once the patent has been granted annually, prior to the beginning of the year calculated from the filing date of the Eurasian application, for which the annual fee is charged in accordance with the national legislation of the Contracting States.

Where a Eurasian patent is granted after the beginning of the year from which the national legislation of the Contracting States provides for the charging of annual fees, once the Eurasian patent has been granted at the time of the first annual fee payment, the annual fees for the previous years shall also be paid.

In cases where the time between the dates of the grant of a Eurasian patent and the first payment of annual maintenance fee in the designated Contracting States is less than two months, the fee indicated may be paid within two months after the date corresponding to the filing date of the Eurasian application.

Where the annual fee for any year of validity of a Eurasian patent, subject to the provisions of the previous item, is paid within the six-month grace period prescribed by Rule 40(7) of the Patent Regulations, the amount of this fee shall be increased by 50 per cent. The fees for the previous years of validity of the patent shall be paid without such an increase upon first payment of the annual fee.

Where the unpaid annual fees for missed years of validity of a Eurasian patent is paid within the three-year time limit prescribed by Rule 39(2) of the Patent Regulations, the amount of the fee for the first missed year shall be increased by 50 per cent. The fees for subsequent missed years shall be paid without such an increase.

Where the annual fee paid does not comply with the prescribed amount, the balance of this fee may be paid within three months from the date of dispatch by the Eurasian Office to the patent owner of notification on the need to make this payment.

Where the document confirming payment of annual fee in the prescribed amount has not been submitted, the patent shall be lapsed in accordance with Rule 56(1) of the Patent Regulations.

(2) When filing a request to surrender a Eurasian patent, a fee in the amount of 800 Rubles shall be paid in accordance with Rule 55(1) of the Patent Regulations.

When filing a request for the limitation of a Eurasian patent, in accordance with Rule 55(2) of the Patent Regulations, via the exclusion of one or of several claims, or via the exclusion from the claims of at least one of the alternative features, while maintaining the other or the others, a fee shall be paid in the amount of 6,500 Rubles.

A document confirming payment of the fee shall be submitted together with the request to surrender the Eurasian patent or a request to limit the Eurasian patent.

Where a document confirming payment of the fee has not been submitted together with the request, the request shall not be considered.

(3) When filing a request for the extension of the period of validity of a Eurasian patent under Rule 16(6) of the Patent Regulations a fee in the amount of 15,000 Rubles shall be paid.

The fees for maintaining the Eurasian patent, the validity of which has been extended, shall be paid within the time limits and according to the requirements prescribed in Rules 40(7) and 39 of the Patent Regulations as well as sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph.

11. Transfer of Right to a Eurasian Application or Eurasian Patent

(1) When filing a request to register the transfer of the right to a Eurasian application according to the procedure of succession in inheritance title or as the result of reorganization of a legal entity, a fee in the amount of 5,000 Rubles shall be paid in accordance with Rule 13(5) of the Patent Regulations or, when acquiring rights, in accordance with Rule 7(1) of the Patent Regulations.

When filing a request to register the transfer of the right to a Eurasian application by means of assignment of that right, a fee in the amount of 20,000 Rubles shall be paid in accordance with Rule 13(5) of the Patent Regulations.

(2) When filing a request to register the transfer of the right to a Eurasian patent according to the procedure of succession in inheritance title or as the result of reorganization of a legal entity, a fee in the amount of 10,000 Rubles shall be paid in accordance with Rule 13(5) of the Patent Regulations or, when acquiring rights, in accordance with Rule 7(2) of the Patent Regulations.

When filing a request to register the transfer of the right to a Eurasian patent by means of assignment of that right, a fee in the amount of 40,000 Rubles shall be paid in accordance with Rule 13(5) of the Patent Regulations.

[sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) as amended on December 5–7, 2023. Effective from January 1, 2024]

(3) When filing a request to register a pledge of right to a Eurasian application or Eurasian patent, fees in the amounts of 5,000 and 10,000 Rubles respectively shall be paid in accordance with Rule 13(9) of the Patent Regulations.

(4) A document confirming payment of the fee shall be submitted together with a request to carry out the above-mentioned procedures.

Where a document confirming payment of the fee in the prescribed amount has not been submitted together with the request, the above-mentioned procedures shall not be carried out.

12. Payment of Fees

- (1) The document confirming payment of a fee shall be an appropriate document (for example a copy of the payment order, a receipt issued by a bank or other credit institution), certified in the prescribed manner by the bank serving the Eurasian Office, or by a bank in a Contracting State which has correspondent relations with the bank serving the Eurasian Office.
- (2) A document confirming payment of a fee shall be valid for submission to the Eurasian Office within three months of the payment date indicated therein.
- (3) A document confirming payment of the fee shall relate to one Eurasian application or to one Eurasian patent and shall contain information which allows to identify the Eurasian application or the Eurasian patent (the registration number of the Eurasian application and/or the number of the Eurasian patent, and if the document is submitted before the registration of the Eurasian application - the title of the invention or the applicant's file number, the international application number), as well as the title of the actions for which the fee was paid.
- (4) In a case where the payment confirmed by the corresponding document does not reach the account of the Eurasian Office within two months of the payment date indicated therein, the applicant or patent owner shall be obliged, within three months of the date of dispatch of appropriate notification, by the Eurasian Office, to take the measures necessary for making the payment.
- (5) A fee shall be considered to have been paid correctly, where the sum received by the Eurasian Office corresponds to the prescribed amount of the fee.
- (6) The Eurasian Office publishes periodically in the Gazette of the Eurasian Office information concerning the bank serving it, the details of Office's account.

13. Refund of Fees

In accordance with Rule 40(9) of the Patent Regulations a fee may be refunded at the applicant's request, if payment of that fee has been made in an amount exceeding that provided for in the Statute, or where the action for which the fee was paid, has not been performed.

The funds to be refunded may, at the request of the said person, be credited to the payment of other fees by that person or for payment for services by the Eurasian Office.
